SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of ONE (1) year. While on supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the mandatory and standard conditions of supervision outlined in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d). The defendant shall also comply with the following special conditions for the reasons set forth in the presentence report which has previously been adopted by the Court as the findings of facts for the purposes of sentencing: 1. The defendant shall pay any remaining restitution and fine at a rate of no less than $200.00 per month, beginning within 30 days of release. The payments shall be made payable to "Clerk, U.S. District Court" and mailed to PO Box 835, Charleston, SC 29402. Interest on any restitution ordered as to this defendant is waived. Payments shall be adjusted accordingly, based upon the defendant's ability to pay as determined by the Court. 2. The defendant shall be subject to placement in the Financial Litigation Unit Wage Garnishment program for the purpose of collecting restitution, if deemed by the U.S. Probation Officer. 3. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Officer access to any and all requested financial information, including bu not limited to income tax returns. 4. The defendant shall be prohibited from opening any new lines of credit without the prior written approval of the U.S. Probation Officer. 5. In compliance with U.S.S.G. §5CI.(d) the defendant shall be placed on a location monitoring program with radio frequency and home detention for a term of five months. The defendant shall submit to curfew restrictions as approved by the U.S. Probation Officer, until such time as the location monitoring can be connected. 6. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of any treatment, drug testing and/or location monitoring not to exceed an amount determined reasonable by the court approved U.S. Probation Office's Sliding Scale for Services, and shall cooperate in securing any applicable third-party payment, such as insurance of Medicaid. 7. Defendant shall report her conviction and sentence to the Board of Dentistry and provide the probation officer with a verification of such disclosure.

AO 245B (SCDC Rev. 09/17) Judgment in a Criminal Case Sheet 3A- Supervised Release

DEFENDANT: JUDY VILLANYI

CASE NUMBER: 2:17-CR-00014-RMG-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission 3. from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation 6. officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has 8. been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours. 9.
- You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything 10. that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant 11. without first getting the permission of the court.
- If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer 12. may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions.
